

SOCIETY

The large tea at which Mrs. Silas Porter and Miss Dorothy Porter were hostesses this afternoon was one of the most charming events of the spring. The Porter home, 247 Western avenue, is a hospitable one and was thrown open this afternoon to several hundred guests. Roses and garden flowers were used in the various rooms, with decorations of white in the reception room where Mrs. Porter and Miss Porter received. Mrs. Porter, who is one of the most delightful hostesses in Topeka, wore an empire gown of broad silk with a tunic of imported lace. Miss Porter wore white crepe de chine with an overdress of crystal beads. The various friends who assisted throughout the rooms were: Mrs. E. E. Ames, Mrs. H. L. Armstrong, Mrs. S. J. Bear, Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Mrs. A. M. Connell, Mrs. W. A. Coston, Mrs. A. M. Fuller, Mrs. Adrian L. Green, Mrs. J. C. McClintock, Mrs. R. J. Parker, Mrs. William R. Smith, Mrs. H. F. Southwick, Miss Clyde Bonebrake, Miss Bertha Hull and Miss Grace Kozintz.

The sketch today shows a fascinating coat suit of Bedford cord in brown and white. The coat shows the long narrow revers faced for a distance with Bulgarian silk; the cuffs the same. The skirt, which has been extended into a tab trimmed with buttons and soutache loops. The coat closes with an ornament of braid. The side gores of the skirt round toward the back at the hem where they also are button trimmed. The line of the side gores at the back is similarly extended and trimmed. The hat worn with this is a broad, entirely of ribbon in shades of brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Brown, 1112 Tyler street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Dr. Charles Howard Edmondson of Washburn college. The wedding, which will be solemnized by Dr. S. S. Estey of the First Presbyterian church, is to be an event of the late summer, and will be of interest to a large number of friends. Miss Brown graduated with honors from Washburn in June, 1912. Dr. Edmondson has been professor of zoology in the college for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale Hamilton sailed today from Liverpool, arriving in New York next week, will spend a few days in the east, and come to Topeka the last of June. They will be the guests of Mr. Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. M. Hamilton, 415 E. Topeka avenue. Mr. Hamilton has just completed a phenomenally successful season of his inimitable "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" in London. His press notices have been marvelously encouraging. Mrs. Hamilton, formerly Miss Myrtle Tannehill, spent last summer in Topeka. The Hamiltons will remain only a few weeks in town; they expect to camp in the Adirondacks until the theater season reopens in New York next fall.

It looks as though citymen would be as scarce in Topeka this summer as palms on a Kansas prairie. Most of the ministers are planning to spend the warm months out of town. Two of them—Dr. Sheldon and Dr. Loveland—are going abroad. Bishop and Mrs. F. R. Millspaugh will leave the first of July for Prior Lake, Minn. The Rev. Roy E. Guild goes to the Y. M. C. A. conference at Parkersburg, Colo., in June and will join his wife the first of July at their cottage in London. Wis. Dr. F. L. Loveland leaves on Wednesday for Montreal, where he takes passage for the British Isles. He and Dr. F. E. Day of St.

Joseph expect to spend three months abroad. Dean and Mrs. James P. de B. Kaye will close the deanery and open their cottage with the other Topekaans at Crab Lake, Mich. Dr. Arthur Henderson will be in town until the first of August; his daughter, Miss Miriam Henderson, will spend the summer in Ohio. Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Estey are considering taking a cottage at Ludington, Mich. July 1. Miss Helen Estey returns next Wednesday from Manhattan and goes immediately to Lawrence where she will study for five weeks, specializing in English, and receive her M. A. degree. Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sheldon leave next week for San Francisco; they sail for Honolulu at once, visit Japan, China, India, Europe and return via London and New York in a year.

The sorority girls at Washburn are planning several parties for next week in addition to the commencement exercises. Chief among unique festivities will be the annual "Klonoa Parade" to be given on an evening whose date is held secret until the line of girls, wrapped in Japanese silk and crepe and lawn, wind rapidly over the campus. The fraternity chaps, not to be outdone, immediately institute a "Night Shirt March," and appear in spectral white or gay pajamas.

The Sigma Delta Psi will have their spring spread, slumber party and initiation at the sorority house on Wednesday, June 4. There are three pledges—Miss Marguerite Kline, Miss Mary Palmer and Miss Helen Brigham. On Monday the active chapter will entertain the alumnae members at a 1 o'clock luncheon at Mills' tea room. The Sigma Delta Psi will have their spring spread, slumber party and initiation at the sorority house on Wednesday, June 4. There are three pledges—Miss Marguerite Kline, Miss Mary Palmer and Miss Helen Brigham. On Monday the active chapter will entertain the alumnae members at a 1 o'clock luncheon at Mills' tea room.

The fraternities are planning numerous suppers and smokers. The Phi Delta Theta gave a rushing smoker at the house last evening for 14 high school chaps. The boys who take part in the "Night Shirt Parade" which is to be on Wednesday at midnight will be entertained at the Phi Delta house at the pleasing hour of 2 o'clock a. m.

Although the annual opening of the Country club was more quiet than usual owing to the fact that it was Decoration day and decidedly warm, several score of guests were entertained at the club during the afternoon and dined there in the evening. There was a golf tournament, tennis and bridge in the card room for those who cared to play. Ray Hall's orchestra furnished music during the dinner hour. The first dance of the season, which was postponed last night, will be given next Saturday, June 7.

The current number of the Dramatic Mirror contains the following clipping about the big Irish tenor, Fiske O'Hara, who delighted such a small but enthusiastic audience at the Grand last fall in "The Rose of Killarney." O'Hara, a charming wife and his diminutive daughter, Ellen, made numerous friends during their short stay in Topeka.

Fiske O'Hara and his wife at their pretty cottage, Erin Go Bragh, and Miss Ann Sutherland and her mother in her bungalow, "The Meadows" at New Haven, Conn., are giving proof of the amity and unity in which neighbors may live. When Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara come to town in their big "O'Hara" to "trade," they bring Neighbor Sutherland and her mother with them; and many are the pleasant twilight chats in the rose gardens of O'Hara while pulling weeds from his garden, the young Irish son cultivates his brogue with the ballads he will sing in the new play which he has satisfied him so well that, if it equally pleases his audiences, he can buy a mansion on Fifth avenue in 1915. His name is Old Dublin Bay.

The social affairs of next week will center about Washburn college. Fraternity and sorority parties, picnics, suppers, luncheons and teas have been planned for the graduating exercises. Invitations have been issued for the commencement exercises. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Dr. Frank Knight, Sanders, the rector of St. Paul's, at 11 a. m. tomorrow morning in the college chapel. Commencement vespers will be held in the afternoon. Class Day comes on Tuesday at 10:30 in the morning. Monday will be devoted to the exercises of the academy. "As You Like It," a repeat performance, the play recently presented so successfully by the senior dramatists will be given on the campus Tuesday night. The annual meeting of the Topeka Federation of Women's clubs will be held Thursday, June 5, at 2:30 p. m., in the assembly room of the Y. W. C. A. building. It will be the closing meeting of the year. The report of the various departments and the election of officers will be held. A short program from the department of education under the direction of Mrs. H. G. Garvey has been prepared. Mrs. Ell G. Foster, chairman of the music department, will have charge of the music to be given during the afternoon.

Beautiful Nell rose crepe has been made into the blouse today and exquisite was it indeed though so simple. Below the shoulder yoke the material was laid in fine tucks. The "V" neck was finished by a collar of shadow lace and around it was knotted a black satin tie. The hat shown with this was of the same shade of straw with roses clustering on the apex of the high-bowl-shaped crown and creating the desired exaggeration in height. Ends of a black velvet bow show beneath the flowers. The brim is faced with black.

The Sorority club held its annual field day picnic luncheon today at the home of Mrs. W. W. Kitchell, 112 Woodlawn avenue, Potwin Place.

The event of the year for the Forestry club, its annual picnic, was held May 29 at the charming country home of Mrs. D. H. Forbes and Mrs. Harry Forbes. Mrs. D. H. Nelson and Mrs. C. H. Riker acted as assistant hostesses. A cafeteria luncheon was served on the wide enclosed veranda overlooking the city, the river and the distant hills—one of the most glorious views near Topeka. Mrs. Robert Stewart was elected a new member and will take her place among the club women next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kingsley have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Ethel, to Mr. Lloyd David Jones, to be solemnized Wednesday, June 11, at the Kingsley home, 1501 West Sixth street. Mr. Jones and his bride will leave immediately for McClelland, Ia., where they will make their home. Only a few relatives and close friends have been asked to attend the ceremony.

The story of the hostess who poured the lemonade into the cake plate and dropped the macaroons into the pitcher has been relegated to the dusty past. The prize absent-minded ditty is sung of another Topeka girl—one who not long ago returned from abroad, who is dark, strikingly attractive and who sings divinely. She was practicing choral music—chanting "Ah, Had I the Wings of a Dove"—when her sister asked her to step to the drug store for some headache tablets. "And mail these letters, too," she added. The girl strolled to the drug store, bought the tablets, sealed them in an envelope, snapped them into her bag, purchased the postage stamps, stamped the bill package and thoughtfully dropped it into the mail box.

The Minerva club entertained this week at the home of Mrs. C. J. Wilson, 1247 Wayne street. Following the buffet luncheon which was served on the lawn the closing exercises of the club year were given. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. M. P. Seltzer and Mrs. Charles Joseph Kaul of Holton, and Miss Lottie Logue of Seattle, Wash. The following interesting program was given:

ception will be given at noon. One of the prettiest of the spring festivities is always the Bethany May fete; dainty children wound the ribbons around the pole and tripped carefully practiced steps on the college campus last Thursday.
